

A Fresh New Look, Added Features and a Brand New Name – At Relationships.com™ Christian Singles Find More Ways To Connect

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., March 21, 2006 – Starting today, Christian singles can take advantage of a better online personals experience. Formerly known as ChristianMingle®.com, the new Relationships.com (www.relationships.com) offers a unique online community created for Christian singles looking to make new friends or find life-long partners who share similar values, traditions and beliefs.

Already the fastest growing online community for Christian singles, the new Relationships.com brand better represents today's Christian single. By utilizing the many interactive features, including email, chat rooms, message boards and instant messaging, Christian singles can become part of an active and growing online community of like-minded individuals.

In addition, the new Relationships.com launches with added features, including:

- 100 new uplifting and spiritual messages eCards to communicate;
- Searchable scriptures to help spread God's word;
- A new Photo Shuffle tool that showcases a varied array of user-uploaded photos in an easy-to-view gallery, giving members an easier way to find matches and helping profiles get noticed more often.

"Relationships.com gives Christian singles the tools they need to interact and have a voice within their community," stated David Siminoff, President and Chief Executive Officer of Spark Networks plc, owner and operator of Relationships.com. "Finally, Christian singles are empowered to find their soul mates."
